

Enjoy Springlicious at Blue Mountain Village

|
Apr 28, 2016 | Vote 0 0
Erika Engel

next play/pause pre 3/3

Collingwood Connection

By Katherine Elphick

Ski season may be over, but Blue Mountain Village is brimming with spring dining deals and more.

Related Stories

All-day pancakes big draw at...

The annual Springlicious dining and shopping event runs Sundays through Thursdays until May 19. Select eateries will offer specials seven days a week.

“It’s a time when friends and families gather in the village for shopping and dining specials and celebrations of spring,” says Patti Kendall, director of marketing and events at Blue Mountain Village Association.

“One of the most popular activities this time of year is getting outside and strolling through the village, which has become part of the shopping and dining experience.”

Springlicious originated more than a decade ago when Copper Blues started its spring steak and seafood special that has turned into an annual event among locals. It has grown to include 13 eateries, 15 shops and two spas.

All menus are priced at $25 that can include lunch for two at Sunset Grill, Royal Majesty or Chuck Burger and prix fixe dinner menus at Copper Blues, C&A Steak Company, Fire Hall Pizza Co., Kaytoo, Magnone’s, Oliver Bonacini, Rusty’s, The Pottery, Tholos and Twist. All Springlicious offers are valid on Mother’s Day, so make your reservations early.

Various boutiques and shops are also offering $25 shopping deals.

For more information on Springlicious specials, visit SpringliciousAtBlue.ca.

Katherine Elphick is the food columnist for Metroland Simcoe County and GoodLife Magazine.

|

